

Phoenix Engineering, Inc. is seeking a full-time engineering project manager. The candidate must be able to: conceptualize infrastructure development projects; provide technical and financial feasibility studies; provide value engineering services; manage project teams; recruit, train, supervise, and evaluate employees; monitor project progress for schedule and budget; prepare and review construction documents in accordance with standards and codes; provide construction administration services; prepare schedules using MS Project or Primavera; use AutoCAD or Microstation and Microsoft Office software. The candidate must have an MBA and BS in civil engineering, EIT license and 3 years of experience as a project engineer. Send resume to: Malini G. Glueck, Phoenix Engineering, Inc., 1420 Joh Avenue, Suite A, Baltimore, MD 21227.